“The Lord appeared to Abram and said, ‘To your offspring I will give this land.’ So he built an altar there to the Lord, who had appeared to him.” Genesis 12:7

“So Joshua called together the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe, and said to them, “Go over before the ark of the Lord your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you, ‘What do these stones mean?’ tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel forever.” Joshua 4:4-7

As many of you know, the events of this past week have been nothing short of exciting for Eastern Hills. Serving on our Pastor Search Committee for the past eight months has truly been a privilege. I learned many things as we grew together as a team. Another member of the committee gave us some words of encouragement that reminded me of two Bible stories, Abram (specifically Genesis 12:7) and Joshua (specifically Joshua 4). You may ask what these two men have in common. When these men saw God move in mighty ways, they placed stones of remembrance or built an altar. These stones that these men placed served as a reminder that God is active and at work in their life. They were physical reminders that when they were seen, people would be reminded of where God brought them from.

Though this season of serving on the Pastor Search Committee did not have me out in my yard physically moving rocks around, this time will always serve as a stone of remembrance in my walk with Christ. This time really taught me to trust what God is doing and follow Him, even if I do not understand. Those of us who participated in Experiencing God remember we had a section about stones of remembrance. When we reflected on our faith journeys, each of us had different “stones” that marked major times in our faith. No two people in my group had the same stones.

Church, this week I would like us to reflect on the stones of remembrance in our walk. Where has God moved in mighty and unmistakable ways in your life? What events in your life shaped your faith? Where do you see God moving now? While reflecting on this, I am reminded of the sermon we heard from our soon-to-be pastor on Sunday. When beginning this new journey, we must remember that God has always been faithful, is still faithful, and will forever be faithful. I hope you guys will continue to be praying for our incoming pastor and his family as they make this transition.
