It's summer! That means school is out, family vacations, cook-outs and Vacation Bible School. VBS was such a fun week! Yes, it's exhausting, but totally worth all the months and months of planning. This is the biggest outreach event we have in our church. We have great teachers that have made contact with their students, and some even met the parents after family night. Sharon Myers and our follow-up team have been reaching out to prospective families and parents of those that made a profession of faith. The best part of VBS was that we had 12 children pray and ask Jesus to be their Savior! That is why we do VBS: to teach children about Jesus and how much He loves them.

VBS involves our whole church. Everyone in our church helps whether you are praying for VBS, teaching, feeding children and volunteers, or checking children in/out. Every group from youth to senior adults help in some way.

VBS also energizes our whole church. We're excited during the week of VBS as we see children learn their Bible verses, how to apply the Bible story to their lives and get all the words and motions to the songs. Now three weeks later, it's exciting to see how God moved in the hearts of our children as those who made a profession of faith come forward and schedule baptism. That is a great reason for everyone to be excited!

As families that attended our VBS visit Eastern Hills, we need to be ready. Be ready to welcome them with excitement! Let them know how happy you are they chose to come back and visit us on a Sunday or Wednesday night. This is how we grow our church and build our preschool and children's ministry. We have had a few families come already, but pray more will come. As you walk down the preschool or children's hallway, pray that God will send families with children to fill the classrooms.

We also need to be ready to serve. When God brings these children and their families to us, we will need more volunteers. We always need help with Worship Care, and we may even need teachers or follow-up team members. Following up after their visit is key to them visiting again. We have to let them know we are glad they visited, whether through a phone call or sending a note. Think back to when you were new and first visited Eastern Hills. What made you want to come back? It was the people who welcomed you and made you feel like you were home and someone calling or sending you a note to let you know they were glad you came.

Let's keep the excitement of VBS as we continue to reach our neighborhood and welcome new visitors and put into practice our Bible verse from VBS, Proclaim the Lord's greatness with me; let us exalt His name together! (Psalm 34:3)
