All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

2 CORINTHIANS 5:18-20

ESV

Each month, I've been writing about faithful church membership. Being a faithful church member is more than just showing up and having your name on role. Being a faithful church membership is about commitment to Christ and the fellowship and mission of the local church. Faithful church members are committed to gather, connect, grow, serve, build, pray, and give.

This month, we'll see that faithful church members build, as in building the Kingdom of God by reaching our community and beyond with the Gospel. I'm sure if I were to ask every church member, "would you like to see our church grow?" or "would you like to see people give their lives to Christ?" the answer would be unanimous: "YES!" But there's a difference between wishing something would happen and actively working toward the goal.

I'm sure that every sports fan wishes their team would win each week. And when that happens, we declare "we won!" But our wishes as fans do little to contribute to the victory. It's members of the team, coaches, and players, who actively contribute to success by studying film, game planning, working out, practicing, even getting the right nutrition, day in and day out. Fans just cheer, watch, and wish.

Faithful church members are not just fans, cheering on the pastor and staff. They are not just spectators showing up each week to watch and wish for good things to happen. Faithful church members are devoted to building the Kingdom, because they know that they are the Body of Christ and the church's mission in their mission.

What are you personally and actively doing to accomplish the church's Kingdom mission and reach this city for Christ? Praying and giving are vital to work and we'll cover those things later. But if we're not personally committed to doing the work we're funding and praying for, we're not faithful and when the members are not faithful the church fails.

So how can you become a Kingdom-building church member?

1. Pray for God to use you to reach the lost and look for opportunities every day to engage.
2. Invest in relationships with those who need the Lord or need a church family.
3. Regularly invite at least one unbeliever or unchurched friend to come to church on Sunday morning. I share the Gospel and offer an invitation during worship every Sunday! (To invite, you must commit to consistently coming yourself!)
4. When your friend comes (and it may take multiple invitations), meet them at the door, show them around, introduce them to others, sit with them in worship and Bible study, and help them fill out a Connect Card. Afterwards, ask follow-up questions, answer any question they might have, and invite them to come back.
5. Patiently and lovingly share the Gospel using Scripture and your own story.

Be a better Kingdom-building church member!
