Faith is having complete trust in someone or something. As a Christian, we define faith as trust and confidence in God and His promises. This faith leads us to a life of obedience and commitment to Christ. I was recently reading a devotion on obedience. By not obeying we are basically saying, "I know better than you." We live in a fallen world and fall into temptation and rebel against God, but as a Christian we should want to be faithful by spending time with our Heavenly Father through reading our Bible, praying, serving others, living a life of holiness, and trusting in God's plan.

By reading our Bible and praying, we are allowing God to reveal Himself to us in new ways. How many times have you read a passage you have read many times and thought, "Wow! I never saw that before"? When we spend time praying, we are talking to God and listening for His voice to guide us.

One thing we can do to show our faith is to serve and give of our time. God gives each of us gifts and talents we can use to further the kingdom. If you love children or preschoolers, I have several places you can get plugged in. You can help in worship care by keeping the preschoolers during worship every other month. I need four people right now to fill vacancies. I also need someone to help teach older children for Sunday School. Just let me know if you would be willing to help, and I will get you plugged in.

We also show our faith by giving. Malachi 3:10 says, "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house. And thereby put Me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need." When Mark and I had been married for about two to three years, we learned this lesson in trusting God. Mark is in commission sales and was having a slow month. We were calculating how much money he needed to make in order for us to pay our bills. We tithed and prayed that God would help Mark to make car sales. The amount we needed was exactly how much money he made. That was a huge blessing and lesson for us to learn early on in our marriage. God will meet our every need if we are faithful to tithe.

When you sit down in a chair, do you expect it to hold you up? Sure—unless you visibly see the chair is broken—you have faith that when you sit down, the chair will hold you. Isn't our faith in God like that? We put our faith in God and have confidence that He will be faithful to keep His promises. Only He knows what is best for us.
